Suspension Measure For Judges Readied

By CHARLES E. CHAPEL, Assemblyman, 46th District
On Monday, Feb. 5, the California State Legislature met in joint session at noon to officially receive the budget, hear the governor's message on the budget, and transact other routine matters prescribed by the State Constitution. We worked hard and were able to recess on the afternoon of Tuesday, Feb. 6, to return home.

We return to Sacramento to resume the budget session at 10 a.m., Wednesday morning, March 7. When we can complete the budget session and the special session or sessions which run concurrently with the budget session is not certain but my present, personal guess is some time before April 1.

On Monday, Feb. 5, I introduced my Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1, a resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending section 10-a of Article VI of the State Constitution, relating to justices and judges.

My proposed constitutional amendment provides for suspension from office and suspension of salary of any justice or judge charged with a state or federal crime, rather than of justice or judge convicted of a state or federal crime involving moral turpitude. It makes suspension automatic rather than requiring an order from the Supreme Court.

The governor had not announced a special session and it was reasonably certain that he would not announce one before we recessed, hence my assembly constitutional amendment was officially held at the desk of the assembly, and not sent to the printer or referred to a committee, but it retains its designation and will be sent to the printer and referred to a committee on or after our return on March 7.

SINCE IT WAS not sent to a printer and is too long and technical to reproduce and explain fully within the space limits of this column, it is necessary for me to mimeograph copies. Since we do not have a free postage franking privilege like U.S. Senators and Members of the U.S. House of Representatives, I regretfully but firmly request that anyone wanting a copy write to me immediately at Post Office Box 327, Redondo Beach, California, and enclose an addressed, stamped, size No. 10 (large) envelope. I shall mail copies to constituents of the 46th Assembly District first and then, if there are any left, I shall send them to others, but when the supply is exhausted I shall return the stamped envelopes of those who write too late.

ALTHOUGH most lawyers will understand all of the above, I must clarify two things: (1) At present, a judge or justice cannot be suspended for immoral conduct without the action of the State Supreme Court; and (2) The phrase "judge or justice" is used because in the Constitution of California and in our codes, all judges are not justices and all justices are not judges, even though a layman usually refers to all of them as judges.

I RODE HOME on an airliner with a past president of the National Bar Assn., who also is a past president of the California State Bar Assn. He told me that he was glad that my Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1 has been introduced early in our session, even though it must be held at the assembly desk for further action when we return.

Then he went on to explain how I can amend it to make it much stricter in the removal of dishonorable judges without encountering the opposition of many judges and lawyers. He is preparing amendments to accomplish this purpose and I shall have them adopted before my proposed amendment moves far in the comparatively long route from introduction to finding a place on the ballot for the coming election.

Two El Camino Journalism Grads Head College Staffs

Carolyn Perkio and Tom Deats, journalism alumni of El Camino College, are now serving as editors-in-chief of San Jose State Spartan Daily and Chico State Wildcat.

Miss Perkio, a graduate of Mira Costa High School, class of '58, is presently a senior at San Jose. While at El Camino, she served as news editor and editor-in-chief of the Warhoop in the spring of '60.

UNDER HER guidance, the Warhoop was presented the All-American award of the Associated Collegiate Press. She was a delegate to several conventions, including the Journalism Association of Junior Colleges Convention in San Francisco and the California Newspaper Publishers Association in Los Angeles. Miss Perkio won numerous awards and is a member of Beta Phi Gamma, national junior college honorary journalism association.

Deats, a junior at Chico State, was on the staff of the Warhoop for two semesters. While on the El Camino College staff Deats served as a cartoonist, sports columnist and feature writer. Deats, referred to as "a real wit" was best known for his work as a feature writer.

THE 23-YEAR-OLD editor completed his term of duty with the Army before enrollment at El Camino.

In announcing Deats' appointment, the Chico State advisor praised him as "the most promising journalism student to appear on the Chico State campus."
